Once known for coal, timber, and railroads, as well as for the many vacation resorts that once stood along our rivers and lakes, our communities are changing rapidly into strong suburban centers. This directory is just one example of how the Chamber is working to connect, communicate, and collaborate with our growing communities.

Maple Valley & Black Diamond continually is recognized in national surveys to be among the best and safest towns for families in the United States.

This just affirms what we already know – it's a great place to live because of our quality schools, affordable homes, access to health care, green space, low crime rate, financial stability, and a spirit of giving that comes from our community members.

In Black Diamond, just to the south of Maple Valley a new planned community is underway and will bring more residents and economic vitality to the area. It will include mixed-use and walkable neighborhoods that will retain and compliment the treasured small-town character that is Black Diamond. The spectacular views of majestic Mount Rainier and the awesome power of the Green River, still carving out the steep cliffs of the gorge, characterize the natural wonders of this area.

As for what the chamber does every day, we advocate for and work towards creating a business-friendly environment in which businesses can grow and prosper. In turn, our schools, public services, community organizations and non-profits benefit greatly from the economic vitality and generosity of our local businesses.

We are excited to help you discover more about our businesses and the community at large. We invite you to call us or just drop by the office, we look forward to meeting you.

CITIES

Meet the Mayors

MAPLE VALLEY: On behalf of the Maple Valley City Council, I would like to extend to you a warm welcome. This is an exciting time for Maple Valley. We are experiencing new business growth opportunities, infrastructure improvements, and investment in our city. With the quality parks that we have available and other outdoor recreation opportunities located nearby, we are certain that you will have an enjoyable time and quality experience during your visit. Our recreational amenities include Lake Wilderness Park, Green to Cedar Rivers Trail, and the many top-rated mountain bike trails located in the area. The Maple Valley Farmers' Market, one of the Top 10 markets in Washington State, will have a new home this year. Come support our local farmers.

I encourage you to visit our locally-owned businesses and restaurants which are the fabric of our community. The broad assortment of restaurants and shopping opportunities available here will satisfy all tastes. You will also have an opportunity to learn about our City's history through the Maple Valley Historical Society Museum and the programs they offer. No community is complete without a strong arts community which the Maple Valley Creative Arts Council provides for us. During your visit you may find the opportunity to purchase a piece of artwork created by one of our local artists.

Discover all that Maple Valley has to offer. We are here to help you do that. I invite you to visit the City's website at www.maplevalleywa.gov call us, or stop by City Hall because we have a wealth of information to share with you.

Sincerely,
Sean P. Kelly

BLACK DIAMOND: Welcome to the City of Black Diamond! Our community was first settled in the 1880's as a coal mining town and eventually incorporated as a city in 1959. You will find a deep loyalty to preserving the history and beauty of Black Diamond among the most treasured part of the community, our citizens.

The city is nestled in the foothills of Mount Rainier and the Cascades, within miles of the Green River Gorge and Flaming Geyser Park. We have hiking and biking trails throughout the city and region along with Lake Sawyer Regional Park and Boat Launch Park at Lake Sawyer. We are part of the Enumclaw, Tahoma and Kent School Districts and host many events throughout the year including Easter Egg Hunts, 4th of July, Miner's Day, Labor Days, Community Thanksgiving Dinner, Holiday Tree Lighting and Hometown Christmas. Our Black Diamond Community Center offers social, recreational and emergency services for seniors, families and youth as well as a clothing and food bank.

Please visit our website www.blackdiamondwa.gov and feel free to visit our city for business opportunities and recreation. Several new housing communities and commercial sites are currently under construction.

Sincerely,
Carol Benson
Mayor of Black Diamond

Industry and Recreation in our Roots!

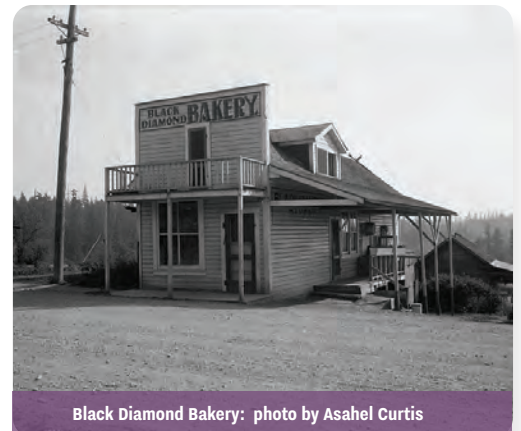

The area was settled in 1879 by three men who were improving a trail and brought their families in. The town's early history mainly had to do with coal and lumber milling to build homes, and a railroad which ran through the town. Coal was brought in from Black Diamond to the south, but the town itself also mined coal from Cedar Mountain. The mine was used as late as 1947.

Rail workers for lines like the Northern Pacific Railroad and the Cedar River Watershed, closed off by the City of Seattle, meant more workers for those things. More residents meant more lumber milling. More lumber milling meant more workers.

Farming and fishing became staples in the area, with milk, poultry and berry farming becoming the main grown food staples in the area. Maple Valley also saw resorts beginning in the 1920's. Lake Wilderness, once the site of a county lumber mill, quickly became a resort lake with the opening of Gaffney's Grove, which opened with a ballroom, restaurant and roller rink.

Later, the resort grew to include an airstrip, lodge, rental cabins, a nine-hole golf course and bowling alley. It remained in operation until 1964.

Increasing automobile use in the area gave rise to new roads being built. In the early 1960's the construction of Washington State Route 18 between Auburn and North Bend ran through the city, requiring many landmarks to be either demolished or moved.

EXPERIENCE HISTORY

and tremendous growth in the residential and commercial sectors

As the City plans to grow from 5,000 residents to nearly 20,000 over the next 2 decades, there has never been a better opportunity to become a part of this vibrant community.

The City's growth has been carefully planned in association with two Master Planned Developments, which include a diverse mix of uses ranging from residential, commercial, office, light industrial, retail, educational, civic, recreational, and open space over a combined 1,500 acres. Between both Master Planned Developments, it is anticipated that approximately 6,000 dwelling units and 1.15 million square feet of non-residential development will be constructed over the next 2 decades. Land use entitlements for individual parcels within the developments are already underway. In 2017, the first vertical construction within the Ten Trails Master Planned Development was approved by the City along with permits for more than 200 residential units and 15 acres of mixed-use commercial/office space. But by the end of 2019 there were only 155 homes sold with several hundred more permits issued.

The City of Black Diamond is a historic mining town with small-town character and hospitality. As the Master Planned Developments continue to grow, the rest of the City will also see new residential and commercial developments. With its mix of historic roots and modern planning principles, Black Diamond is a unique community that offers opportunities for development at all scales. In addition to its unique character and location, Black Diamond has a high quality of life for its residents. Close proximity to various recreational amenities such as Lake Sawyer and its Regional Park, Flaming Geyser State Park, and the Black Diamond and Henry's Ridge Natural Areas reinforce the community's ties to nature. Even more recreation opportunities are located within short driving distance. Community events such as Miner's Day, Labor Days, Holiday Tree Lighting, and Hometown Christmas bring the City together reinforcing a strong community spirit.

Located approximately 30 miles from Seattle and Tacoma, and approximately 25 miles from Sea-Tac Airport, the City enjoys close access to the I-5 and I-90 corridors. The City's transportation network includes SR169, SR167, SR18, and SR516. In addition to these existing major thoroughfares, multiple transportation upgrades are planned in association with the Master Planned Developments to enhance and optimize travel times.

TOP PLACES TO VISIT IN BLACK DIAMOND

Black Diamond Bakery

Established in 1902, the Bakery became famous after many years of baking bread in their "Old Brick Oven". People came from miles around to purchase hot bread and bakery supplies from the oven daily.

Now an award-winning bakery and restaurant, they feature delicious breakfast fare and amazing baked goods.

On clear days you'll enjoy a great view of Mt. Rainier while you dine!

32805 Railroad Ave.
Black Diamond WA 98010
blackdiamondbakery.com

Lake Sawyer Regional Park

Located just off Lake Sawyer Road on the South side of Lake Sawyer is Lake Sawyer Regional Park, a true hidden gem of a park.

From the parking lot, follow the trail as it meanders through the forest. At the junction, head downhill towards the lake. Walk along the shoreline exploring the many alcoves and enjoy the local wildlife. Take the scenic route back to the parking lot and pass by Frog Lake an extension of Lake Sawyer and home to many birds.

Parking is located on the east side of Lake Sawyer Road on the south side of the lake. Visit King County Parks for detailed park info: kingcounty.gov

Black Diamond Historical Museum

Black Diamond Historical Society was formed in 1976 by a small group who wanted to preserve a little bit of America right at home. Restoration of the depot began shortly thereafter and the Museum opened on June 6, 1982, in a gala celebration honoring the one-hundredth birthday of Black Diamond. Since the opening day, people from all over the world appear on the guest register and have enjoyed going back in time when "Coal was king." The Honor Garden, a memorial for coal miners is located next to the depot. The museum hosts a number of events and presentations throughout the year.

Black Diamond Historical Town District

The Old Town District is the essence of Black Diamond and draws locals and tourists from across the Puget Sound. Experience our rich mining history at the Historical Museum, and you'll enjoy our small-town character and hospitality.

Everything in Old Town District is an easy walk. Start with the Black Diamond History Museum and get immersed in our rich coal mining history. Then grab a pastry or full breakfast at the historic Black Diamond Bakery (it's hard to choose just one), then stroll through our antique and boutique shops. Free public parking is available. Family and friends have gathered here for generations. Come out and experience Black Diamond.

Black Diamond Open Space

Black Diamond Open Space is located off State Route 169 between Black Diamond and Maple Valley. The 1,240-acre multi-use King County Park has an extensive network of well-marked trails for hiking or biking. It's a popular mountain bike destination and great for all skill levels.

Trails are located on both sides of SR-169 and parking is plentiful. King County Parks' Green-to-Cedar River Regional Trail is planned for future development through this area.

Visit King County Parks for detailed trail info: kingcounty.gov

Flaming Geyser State Park

Set on a glorious stretch of the Green River east of Auburn, this suburban jewel known for radio-controlled aircraft flying activities, offers wooded hiking and horse trails, expansive fields for play, places to view the fall salmon runs and enjoy sublime summer swimming, fishing and just hanging out. Flaming Geyser, a day-use park, is centered around a unique geological feature, a "flaming geyser," or cluster of once-active methane seeps. The flame no longer burns because of the depletion of its methane source. But the history of the flame, told in interpretive panels at the location, will pique parkgoers' curiosity about the living nature of planet Earth.

Mountains to Sound Greenway National Heritage Area

Maple Valley is a part of newly designated Mountains to Sound Greenway National Heritage Area. The Mountains to Sound Greenway National Heritage Area proudly joins 54 other National Heritage Area sites in 32 states. National Heritage Areas are places designated by Congress where historic, cultural, and natural resources combine to form cohesive, nationally important landscapes. The Greenway National Heritage Area legislation was originally introduced in 2013 by U.S. Representatives Dave Reichert and Adam Smith and Senators Maria Cantwell and Patty Murray. Additional congressional delegation support included U.S. Representatives Suzan DelBene, Pramila Jayapal, and Kim Schrier.

Danville-Georgetown Trails

The Danville-Georgetown trail system has over 27 miles of trails that wind around and across SE Summit Landsburg Road in Maple Valley. None of the trails exceed 800 feet in elevation and is a good destination point throughout the winter months. These trails are open to mountain bikes, hikers, and horseback riding so expect to see a fair number of other trail users.

Cedar River Trail (King County Regional Trail)

The trail follows a historic railroad route between the river and State Route 169, and passes through or near Renton, Maplewood, Cedar Mountain, Maple Valley, and Rock Creek. It offers views and access to Lake Washington, downtown Renton, Cedar River Park, Maplewood Golf Course, Ron Regis Park, Cedar Grove Park, and Maple Valley. The Cedar River Trail offers an urban river walk, a more rural river walk along a former rail bed, and a roadside bicycle path connecting the two. Bicycle the entire trail, or select one of many access points to explore the trail on foot. The trail follows the river for 17.4 miles, from the Cedar River Watershed's western boundary at Landsburg, downstream to the mouth of the Cedar River, where it empties into Lake Washington in Renton. For the purposes of this guide, the starting point is the Renton trailhead. At 12.7 miles is the end of the paved trail and is the junction for the Green to Cedar Rivers Trail.

Black Diamond Open Space (BDOS)

(BDOS) is located in rural King County North of the city of Black Diamond and south of the city of Maple Valley, is a 1,240-acre multi-use King County Park. (BDOS) is managed as three geographic units: North, Southwest and Southeast Units. The 1996 Black Diamond Urban Growth Area Agreement identified open space lands around the city for permanent preservation on the principle that for every one acre of urban land added to the urban growth area, four acres would be permanently preserved as open space.

Lake Wilderness Lodge

Nestled on the shores of Lake Wilderness with a breathtaking view of Mount Rainer and the lake, the Lodge offers an elegant location to hold a beautiful wedding, reception or business meeting/retreat. The Lodge is spacious enough for multi-use events such as dancing, dining on the main floor, or conference retreats with the conference wing's nicely appointed meeting rooms that overlook the lake. The Lodge can accommodate 250 people theater-style with 6 breakout rooms and WiFi throughout. The Lodge also features state of the art projection, DVD/Blu-Ray on the main floor, sound system with CD, iPod, MP3, compatibility, and wireless microphones. Portable projectors and sound is also available upon request.

Lake Wilderness Swim Beach & Beach House

The beach at Lake Wilderness Park is open to swimming with on-duty lifeguards during the summer from noon-7pm. The Beach House was newly constructed in 2018. This wonderful building features expanded restroom facilities, a family changing room, and lifeguard station. You can also enjoy snacks and refreshments at the Beach House Concession Stand, and rent a paddle board or kayak at the expanded boat rental facility. The beach at Lake Wilderness is the place to be during the Summer.

Green to Cedar Rivers Trail (King County Regional Trail)

The North-South connection is for cyclists, pedestrians and equestrians and weaves through exceptional landscapes connecting south King County communities to rivers, lakes, creeks, and natural areas. This 11-mile trail is a full-standard shared-use trail and connects the Cedar River Trail to Flaming Geyser State Park on the Green River. The vision for the trail was originally proposed in the 1992 King County Regional Trails Plan as the "Maple Valley-Flaming Geyser Trail". The County has been in discussion about the trail vision with the cities of Black Diamond, Maple Valley, and Covington, as they are primary stakeholders within the corridor.

Visit King County Parks for detailed trail info:

Emergency Preparedness Planning

Preparedness is the best defense against disaster!

An emergency can strike quickly and without warning. The best way to cope with an emergency is to prepare before it happens. Don't wait! Recognizing the uncertain nature of emergency communications, individuals and families need to develop a degree of self-reliance for the first week. Start working on your family's plan today and know the disaster plan of your school district and your work place.

Make a plan for your business

Many small businesses close due to a disaster event and never re-open. Visit Maple Valley's Emergency Management Information site for resource links for businesses and residents:

Visitation Hours:

Open daily from sunrise to sunset.
Located near Maple Valley, it is the first and only national cemetery in the State of Washington. Tahoma has a Memorial walkway containing 36 memorials that commemorate soldiers of various 20th century wars, donated by various service organizations. A Blue Star Memorial is located south of the Public Information Center. The marker was originally part of a banner that families displayed in their homes during the 1940's to signify that they had a loved one fighting in World War II. Today, the marker honors all veterans.
The 160 acre cemetery is on SE 240th Street, adjacent to Maple View Middle School.
